

Nov. 1867.

Dear Mr Garrison,

298

Mr Sewall, who is very busy to day with a case in court has commissioned me to write you on behalf of the lecturing committee of which he is one, to learn if you can give a lecture at Melrose some Monday night - I am sorry to say that the time cannot yet offer a high price, twenty five dollars being their usual limit, but last year we had some very good lecturers who were willing to come for small pay when they could take Melrose en route.

If you can come we shall want you to take tea and spend the night with us, I wish your dear wife could come too -

We have read with much pleasure the accounts we have had of your mission, and congratulate you upon your safe and happy return -

Yrs
Herbert W. Sewall.

Saturday -

Will you please let Mr Sewall know at your earliest convenience -

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is too light to transcribe accurately.]

Ms. A. 1. 2 v. 35, p. 152A